

Exhibit B

United Kingdom Tax Strategy

Scope and application

This tax strategy, which applies to Kiniksa Pharmaceuticals International, plc (“Kiniksa”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”), outlines Kiniksa’s approach to the management of its tax affairs in the United Kingdom.

The publication of this tax strategy is intended to comply with Kiniksa’s duty under paragraph 16(2) Schedule 19 Finance Act 2016 to publish a tax strategy for the financial year ending 31 December 2025 and for all subsequent financial years until superseded.

This tax strategy was approved by Kiniksa’s Board of Directors on April 2, 2025.

Approach to Tax Risk Management

- Kiniksa adheres to the applicable laws and regulations in the United Kingdom and seeks to minimize the risk of uncertainty or dispute.
- Where Kiniksa engages in intra-Group cross-border sales, Kiniksa manages pricing in accordance with authoritative guidelines (such as those issued by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development), and follows arm’s length principles.
- Where Kiniksa believes there is significant uncertainty or complexity regarding United Kingdom taxation matters, Kiniksa seeks professional advice and, if appropriate, discusses the matter with His Majesty’s Revenue and Customs.
- Robust financial systems are in place to ensure the integrity of Kiniksa’s United Kingdom tax filings and accurate and timely payment of United Kingdom tax.

Governance

- Kiniksa’s approach to its tax affairs in the United Kingdom is guided and influenced by its commitment to the principles of integrity and transparency and by the behaviors outlined in its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (published on <https://investors.kiniksa.com/corporate-governance/documents-charters>).
- The Chief Accounting Officer is responsible for the oversight of Kiniksa’s United Kingdom tax strategy, with the support of Kiniksa’s Senior Director of Tax and other members of Kiniksa’s financial operations team.
- Tax risk management is discussed periodically with Kiniksa’s management and, when appropriate, with the Audit Committee (the “Audit Committee”) of Kiniksa’s Board of Directors (the “Board”). Certain matters related to tax strategy and risk management may require specific Board or Audit Committee approval.

- Kiniksa's approach to tax is periodically reviewed to ensure it takes account of new tax laws, and/or changes in Kiniksa's and/or the Group's operations.

Attitude to Tax Planning

- Kiniksa considers tax planning in support of the Group's overall strategic aims an essential and appropriate part of Kiniksa's responsibility to its shareholders to be financially efficient.
- As the Group has operations around the world, it may be subject to corporation and other business taxes, as well as tax associated with its employees, in the jurisdictions in which it operates. The Group seeks to comply with the applicable tax laws and regulations in all such jurisdictions.
- Kiniksa does not undertake transactions that are contrary to the spirit and intent of United Kingdom tax legislation, nor transactions that Kiniksa believes will harm its or the Group's reputation.

Relationship with His Majesty's Revenue and Customs

- Kiniksa seeks to build and maintain a constructive, appropriate and open relationship with HMRC based on mutual respect, with the aim of reducing tax risks, disputes and reputational risk.
